

Central Valley Sports League

Parent & Athlete Sportsmanship Acknowledgment

At Central Valley Sports League (CVSL), we believe that sports are about skill development, teamwork, and fun, not just winning. Good sportsmanship is a core expectation for all athletes, parents, and spectators.

Athlete Expectations

I, the undersigned athlete, agree to:

- Treat coaches, teammates, referees, opponents, and spectators with respect at all times.
- Follow all league rules and instructions from coaches and referees.
- Play with integrity and give my best effort during practices and games.
- Accept both winning and losing gracefully.
- Avoid inappropriate language, gestures, or behavior on or off the field/court.

Parent / Guardian Expectations

I, the undersigned parent/guardian, agree to:

- Encourage my child to follow league rules and demonstrate good sportsmanship.
- Respect coaches, referees, players, and other parents at all times.
- Refrain from coaching from the sidelines in a way that conflicts with league or team instructions.
- Accept league decisions regarding game results, player participation, or disciplinary actions without dispute.
- Model positive behavior and support the values of teamwork, respect, and fair play.
